

Momm's Part of the Story!

NOTE: After more than five years of incarceration and being pinned up in a cell with himself and Satan, Sonn began to look around himself and wonder if Christ could ever forgive him and whether he could ever forgive himself. After much prayer and digging into the Word of God, he found that not only did Jesus forgive him for the horrific things he had done, but he still loved him and promised him an eternal home by His side in Heaven. The picture above is one of the most powerful witnesses that could ever be exhibited. Walking with the devil, the look of evilness surrounded my son for many years. But one day I walked into the visiting room at Joliet Correctional Center and I could see the change. The change was in the sparkle of his eyes, in the softness of his smile and in the tone of his voice.

His testimony was written in 1991; a little over four years after his incarceration began. Today, sixteen years later, Sonn is still walking with the Lord and is still being used to bring others to salvation. The newsletter he spoke of in his testimony is today a thriving ministry called, "Fishers of Men Prison Ministries." It brings the saving grace of Jesus Christ to inmates around the globe through stories written by inmates for inmates witnessing to each other. Sonn's story today is essentially the same, though his words might be a little more eloquent. Unconsciously, Christ now directs the flow of words from his mouth and thoughts from his mind. God is Good! Momm
